RESPONSE TO NOTICE OF ABANDONMENT

Honorable Director of Patents and Trademarks
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Dear Sir:

A Notice of Abandonment dated April 11, 2006 has been received regarding this application. Since the application has not been abandoned, reinstatement of the application is requested.

An appropriate response to the drawing requirement dated June 21, 2005 was filed with the Patent and Trademark Office, and a copy of the paper mailed July 20, 2005 as well as the submitted drawings is attached hereto. Inadvertently, however, the wrong application information was indicated in the heading for the response, and obviously the papers have gotten directed to Serial No. 09/846,096 instead of the present application. Also attached hereto is the post card receipt of the firm of the undersigned indicating that the wrongly-directed papers were, in fact, received.

Since the papers were received by the Patent and Trademark Office (albeit being directed to the wrong application), an appropriate response was submitted to the June 21, 2005 drawing requirement, and this application is therefore not abandoned. Issuance of the patent as soon as possible is requested.

April 19, 2006

Respectfully submitted,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "William M. Lee, Jr.", is written over a horizontal line. The signature is fluid and stylized, with the last name "Lee" being particularly prominent.
